

Sherlock Holmes

Consulting Detective

221B Baker Street, London NW1

---

Skills

- Brave, resourceful; a master of intrigue and various disguises.
- Heightened sense of perception, especially when dealing with obscure clues.
- Able to distill essential information by talking with a client for only a few minutes.
- Impeccable sense of timing, especially when competing with Scotland Yard.
- Handy with all sorts of weaponry, including pistols and knives. Also proficient in spotting hidden clues with a magnifying glass.

Accomplishments

- Researched and solved 60 cases involving murder, political intrigue, and a large hound.
- Organized expeditions throughout the British Isles to apprehend criminals.
- Designed experiments in forensics, criminology, and tobacco-leaf identification.
- Worked with Scotland Yard to assist crime fighters, including Inspector Lestrade.
- Contributed information for books and articles published by John Watson, MD.

Positions

- Consulting detective, 1881–1904.
- Owner, Sherlock Holmes Detective Agency, 1870–1880.
- Member, Scotland Yard Violent Crimes Unit, investigative division, 1868–1869.
- University hall monitor and wayward student tracker, 1865–1867

Education

Cambridge, two years of undergraduate studies.

Awards and Memberships

Queen's award for best detective wearing a deerstalker cap.

Member, the Diogenes Club, London

Sherlock Holmes